SUFFRAGE HAS LOST HARD-FOUGHT BATTLE

Women Are Game and At Once Begin Planning For A New Campaign

New York, Nov. 3.—Suffrage has lost its first great battle in the east.

Returns still rolling in today confirmed earlier reports that Massachusetts registered against votes-for-women by a majority of 134,000; Pennsylvania by upwards of 125,000 and New York by 200,000.

These figures mean that two out of every five men in the three great states favored giving their wives, sisters and sweethearts the ballot. Estimated totals of the three states were: For suffrage 1,000,000, against 1,500,000.

But the defeat did not dampen the spirit of the determined women who for weeks fought their battle almost alone. Instead, they at once set to work to start a new campaign. This movement will open with a big suffrage rally in Carnegie hall tomorrow night.

New York City itself gave a majority against suffrage of 98,000; Buffalo 7,000, and Rochester 5,000. Jamestown went for suffrage by a majority of 1800.

Philadelphia rolled up an 80,000 majority against the cause, and Pittsburgh followed heavily. Half of Pennsylvania's counties, however, favored the ballot for women.

Suffrage received more votes in the Keystone state than President Wilson did in the last presidential election; more in Massachusetts than Taft or Roosevelt did in 1912; and more in New York than Taft or Roosevelt.

Majority Reduced.

Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—Incomplete returns this afternoon indicated that suffrage in the state was defeated by not more than 75,000; and by 40,000 in this city.

May Get Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 3.—The county of which Pittsburgh is the seat, gave suffrage perhaps the largest proportionate vote in the Keystone state. The latest totals showed 39,131 for and 39,497 against. Suffragists said complete figures will give them a majority.

In the lodge rooms. Besides the regular routine, the evening was spent in a social session, with A. J. Baldwin presiding. The program included an organ solo by William McGilchrist, accompanied on the piano by his daughter, Miss Izzy, and a recitation in French by C. J. Plummer. Another feature of the evening was the rendition by Benjamin Brick of Ingersoll's "Tomb of Napoleon." The entertainers from the Bligh theatre, Mr. and Mrs. Bush, added to the pleasures of the evening. Following the entertainment, lunch was served.

The competitive drill team of the Salem Rebecca lodge No. 1, with about 50 members of the lodge will attend the county semi-annual convention, which will meet at Aurora Friday evening. ### DEMOCRATIC LEADERS "THE MORNING AFTER"

Are Not Worrying Over Showing Made By Their Friends, "the Enemy"

Washington, Nov. 3.—The "morning after" election found the administration with mixed emotions. While democratic leaders were largely disappointed by results elsewhere, they found some solace in Maryland and Kentucky's choices of democratic governors. A statement is expected from the White House in a few days after the returns have been analyzed.

Leaders asserted that local issues were responsible for the defeat of Governor Walsh, democrat in Massachusetts, the republicans assigned the same cause for their defeat in Maryland. Massachusetts was generally regarded by political experts as a most significant political barometer, although the administration felt that the small republican majority, aided by the return of the Bull Moose to the fold, really offered a contradiction of their claims of a republican sweep.

Failure of the progressives to get the requisite three per cent of the total Bay state vote to retain their hold as a legal party was regarded important, as marking a milestone in what many said is an early and complete dissolution of the Bull Moose. As far as Massachusetts was concerned, however, this dissolution brought no comfort to the democrats, for there the progressives manifestly went back to the republican fold.

A QUEER HONEYMOON.

Aberdeen, Wash., Nov. 3.—Adrift in open ocean on his honeymoon, Captain Paul Shutter and his bride, on board the schooner Annie Larson have no immediate prospect of being picked up, as the sea is too rough to dispatch aid. The Larsen is adrift, in distress, somewhere off Cape Flattery. She is the vessel which created a stir recently when arms and ammunition, supposed to be destined for Mexico, were found on her. The cargo was confiscated by the government.

M'ADOO SEES THE INVISIBLE.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Returning from his Pacific coast trip, Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo brought tawny optimistic tidings.

"I was impressed by the unmistakable evidences of prosperity, confidence and optimism in practically every business. The lumber industry, depressed for several years, was the only exception, but it is reviving."

KING STILL SORE.

London, Nov. 3.—Though generally improved, King George passed a less comfortable night. He still has considerable pain as a result of his accident in falling from his mount on the Pinaco-Flinders front last week.

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—Official figures issued by the department of admissions of the Panama-Pacific exposition showed that 348,472 persons attended the exposition San Francisco day. Twenty men were occupied from the time the exposition closed last night until noon today without stopping, counting the admission tickets.

SEATTLE AND ITS MILK.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 3.—Indications today were that the city council would deny the application of Attorney John B. Shoret, representing clients who propose to establish a central milk depot for the handling and distribution of all of Seattle's milk. Shoret asserts that consumers would pay less and the producer receive more for the milk, because of elimination of duplication in routes and in handling.
